

Plasterdown Grouped Parish Council

Freedom of Information Policy- Publication Scheme

Introduction

The Freedom of Information Act 2000, which came into full effect on 1 January 2005, gives a general right of access to all kinds of recorded information held by public authorities. Plasterdown Grouped Parish Council is a public authority as defined in the Act.

Every public authority is required to adopt and maintain a publication scheme with effect from 1 January 2009. Plasterdown Grouped Parish Council reviewed, amended, and re-adopted the Model Publication Scheme (detailed below) at its Meeting held on 20th March 2024, minute no:

Members of the public already have a high degree of access to information from Plasterdown Grouped Parish Council via publicly accessible Council Meetings, the telephone, email, and its website.

Freedom of Information Requests and the Publication Scheme

It is important to note that a publication scheme simply sets out the information that is routinely available. Information that is not listed in this guide can still be requested and should be made available unless it can be legitimately withheld due to an exemption. All applications must be made in writing to: Mrs Caroline Metcalf, the Parish Clerk, 84 Whitchurch Road, Tavistock, PL19 9BE.

All information not covered by an exemption must ordinarily be released to the applicant within twenty working days of the request. If the Council considers that the information requested should not be made available, because of an exemption applying, then the applicant will be informed of this.

Model Publication Scheme

This model publication scheme has been prepared and approved by the Information Commissioner. It may be adopted without modification by any public authority without further approval and will be valid until further notice. This publication scheme commits an authority to make information available to the public as part of its normal business activities. The information covered is included in the classes of information mentioned below, where the authority holds this information. Additional assistance is provided to the definition of these classes in sector specific guidance manuals issued by the Information Commissioner.

The scheme commits an authority:

- To proactively publish, or otherwise make available as a matter of routine, information, including environmental information, which is held by the authority and falls within the classifications below.

- To specify the information which is held by the authority and falls within the classifications below.
- To proactively publish, or otherwise make available, as a matter of routine, information in line with the statements contained within this scheme.
- To produce and publish the methods by which the specific information is made routinely available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public.
- To review and update on a regular basis the information the authority makes available under this scheme.
- To produce a schedule of any fees charged for access to information which is made proactively available.
- To make this publication scheme available to the public.

Classes of information

Who we are and what we do.

Organisational information, locations and contacts, constitutional and legal governance.

What we spend and how we spend it.

Financial information relating to projected and actual income and expenditure, tendering, procurement, and contracts.

What our priorities are and how we are doing.

Strategy and performance information, plans, assessments, inspections, and reviews.

How we make decisions.

Policy proposals and decisions. Decision making processes, internal criteria and procedures, consultations.

Our policies and procedures.

Current written protocols for delivering our functions and responsibilities.

Lists and registers.

Information held in registers required by law and other lists and registers relating to the functions of the authority.

The services we offer

Advice and guidance, booklets and leaflets, transactions, and media releases. A description of the services offered.

The classes of information will not generally include:

- Information whereby the disclosure of which is prevented by law, or exempt under the Freedom of Information Act, or is otherwise properly considered to be protected from disclosure.
- Information in draft form.
- Information that is no longer readily available as it is contained in files that have been placed in archive storage or is difficult to access for similar reasons.

The method by which information published under this scheme will be made available.

The authority will indicate clearly to the public what information is covered by this scheme and how it can be obtained.

Where it is within the capability of a public authority, information will be provided on a website. Where it is impractical to make information available on a website or when an individual does not wish to access the information by the website, a public authority will indicate how information can be obtained by other means and provide it by those means.

In exceptional circumstances, some information may be available only by viewing in person. Where this manner is specified, contact details will be provided. An appointment to view the information will be arranged within a reasonable timescale.

Information will be provided in the language in which it is held or in such other language that is legally required. Where an authority is legally required to translate any information, it will do so.

Obligations under disability and discrimination legislation and any other legislation to provide information in other forms and formats will be adhered to when providing information in accordance with this scheme.

Charges which may be made for information published under this scheme.

The purpose of this scheme is to make the maximum amount of information readily available at minimum inconvenience and cost to the public. Charges made by the authority for routinely published material will be justified and transparent and kept to a minimum.

Material which is published and accessed on a website will be provided free of charge.

Charges may be made for information subject to a charging regime specified by Parliament.

Charges may be made for actual disbursements incurred such as:

- photocopying
- postage and packaging
- the costs directly incurred as a result of viewing information

Charges may also be made for information provided under this scheme where they are: legally authorised; they are in all the circumstances, including the general principles of the right of access to information held by public authorities, justified; and are in accordance with a published schedule or schedules of fees which is readily available to the public.

If a charge is to be made, confirmation of the payment due will be given before the information is provided. Payment may be requested prior to provision of the information.

Written requests

Information held by a public authority that is not published under this scheme can be requested in writing, whereby its provision will be considered in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act.
